THE jury that was empanelled at the last term of the circuit court in the case of the Maysville & Big Sandy Railroad Company vs. John G. Bacon and others, to obtain the right-of-way over certain tracts of land along the route, rendered their verdict last Saturday. The verdict affirms the report of the commissioners, allowing Mrs. Rachel Ball $375, for the value of the land taken, and the damages thereto. The report of the commissioners allowed John G. Bacon $100 for the value of the land taken, and $100 for damages thereto. The jury in their verdict placed the value of this land taken, at $200 and gave $100 damages. The report of the commissioners gave the Trippert heirs $125 for the land taken, and $300 for damages thereto. The jury gave $135 for the land taken, and $615 damages. In the case of Moses Moore the jury allowed $100 more than the commissioners, and in the case of Mrs. Louis Roser, they made a reduction of $125, allowing her but $125. In the case of Charles True the commissioner's report giving $100, was confirmed.
